

GMon Professional

Tanita's GMon Pro Software is Designed to Link Easily via RS-232 or USB to any scale in the Professional Range

The health monitoring software can be used to chart progress and trends in composition measurements over time and includes the facility to produce professional reports and printouts. Client information can be stored with analysis data to give healthcare professionals and trainers accurate, in-depth information to help the devise tailored training, fitness and weight-loss

GMon Professional is ideal for

- Health screening
- Weight management
- Fitness assessment

Product Details

- Direct data transfer to and from all professional Tanita scales and AM-180 activity monitor
- Manual input for all scales
- Manual input and analysis of other body and vital values
- Calculation of health risks
- Target Settings
- Reports and printouts
- Data exports
- MDD Class I Certified

System Requirements

- Windows 200/XP/Vista/Windows 7/Windows 8

